1. General Higinio Morinigo, former president of Paraguay now living in Buenos Aires, is no longer regarded as acceptable to President Peron. The Argentine chief executive has refused to see Morinigo on two recent occasions. 25X1A2g
2. This complete change of attitude on the part of Peron is attributed to the fact that Morinigo asked Peron to obtain export permits for himself and then used these permits for profiteering purposes.
3. Peron's favorite among Paraguayan exiles at the present time is said to be Colonel Victoriano Benitez Vera. Another in favor with the Peron government is Dr. Prudencio Mendoza, former professor at the University of La Plata.
